

Meghan Magruder

PARTNER

PROFILE

Meghan Magruder is a Partner in King & Spalding's Atlanta office and a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group. Ms. Magruder represents corporate clients in insurance coverage and complex commercial litigation matters. She is listed in The Best Lawyers In America, Georgia Super Lawyers, and Top Women Attorneys in Georgia.

Ms. Magruder has more than thirty years of experience handling complex commercial litigation matters with particular emphasis in insurance claims, indemnity disputes, purchaser and supplier disputes, mass tort defense and product liability litigation. She handles multi-party, class action, and multi-jurisdictional litigation and various forms of dispute resolution. She also provides clients with counseling on preventative litigation strategies, and advises policyholders on a wide variety of insurance and risk management matters. She serves as lead trial counsel in jury and non-jury trials, as well as lead counsel in international arbitration disputes. Ms. Magruder was lead counsel in a lengthy international arbitration in London for the largest automotive company based in India and successfully obtained dismissal of over $100 million of claims against her client and an award of attorney's fees in favor of her client. The award was challenged in the English High Court and was upheld on appeal. Ms. Magruder was also lead trial lawyer in a three week federal court jury trial winning a verdict for her client that was second highest in the State in the contract verdict category. The case was appealed and in 2013, the verdict was upheld on appeal.

Ms. Magruder is a fellow in the Litigation Counsel of America, which is an invitation-only trial lawyer honorary society and represents less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Fellows are selected based upon excellence and accomplishments in litigation, trial work and superior ethical reputation. Ms. Magruder is also a fellow in the American College of Coverage Counsel for her work representing policyholders in connection with claims in negotiation, litigation and arbitration including international arbitration. She advises clients with respect to all types of insurance policies and all matters of claims, including cyber, commercial liability, all risk, property, directors and officers, crime, employment, environmental errors and omissions and electronics specialty policies. She handles property loss and business interruption claims, and she has been retained by companies to assist with insurance strategies in situations where large numbers of cases and class actions, such as consumer class actions, asbestos and other toxic tort litigations have been filed. Ms. Magruder also counsels clients on review of their insurance programs and adequacy of coverages.

Ms. Magruder also has substantial experience advising clients on corporate governance and risk management issues. She serves as general counsel for the Institute of Nuclear Power Operations, whose members include all U.S. based nuclear power facilities.

Ms. Magruder also represents clients in a variety of mass tort and product liability matters. For example, she has represented a major pharmaceutical company involved in class action consumer fraud cases. She has been national coordinating counsel for international automotive companies involved in benzene exposure litigation. She has also defended companies in multi-jurisdictional asbestos and lead litigation, and she
