Jules Quinn focuses on labor issues, particularly in global operations. As a partner in our Labor and Employment practice, Jules represents major corporations and financial institutions in a variety of labor-related matters.

Jules brings particular experience in international project management to her work with companies headquartered outside of the UK, particularly U.S.-based corporations with global operations. She often works alongside in-house counsel or senior management with responsibility for EMEA acquisitions, mergers, employee transfers and the downsizing of European workforces.

Jules is a frequent lecturer and commentator in the UK national press on a wide range of topics, most recently on cyberbullying and social media. She is ranked in Chambers UK for employment law and recommended by Legal 500 UK. In the recent Chambers UK guide, clients highlight that “she has technical excellence, and the ability to get into the detail and then step back and look at the bigger commercial and strategic picture” and that “she is an incredible practitioner.”
