Adnan Doha has extensive experience in public and private mergers, acquisitions, disposals, joint ventures, restructurings and corporate finance matters. A Senior Associate in King & Spalding's award-winning Middle East Corporate, Finance and Investment group with significant cross border expertise, Adnan represents corporate, private equity and financial institution clients on a range of key strategic transactions. His sector focus spans consumer goods and retail, industrials, real estate, technology and e-commerce, healthcare, hospitality and leisure.

Prior to joining our firm, Adnan worked in the London office of Clifford Chance LLP for a decade, with a year on secondment to the Dubai office. Adnan has also spent time leading an Africa focussed private equity house working on a range of acquisitions, joint ventures and disposals from deal origination to deal execution.

Adnan has advised NBK Capital Partners on its investment in an e-commerce business operating in Kuwait and Egypt as well as Baker Hughes, a GE Company in its acquisition of a 5 per cent interest in ADNOC Drilling for an initial consideration of US$550 million, valuing ADNOC Drilling at US$11 billion. Adnan also advised Legal & General on its disposal of interests in UK shopping centres for £150m to a Japanese bank and subsequent joint venture arrangements.
