

Alek Pivec

Associate
Healthcare / Life Sciences and Healthcare

Washington, D.C.: +1 202 626 2914
apivec@kslaw.com

Alek Pivec is an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of King & Spalding and a member of the firm’s Healthcare practice. Alek specializes in representing hospitals and other healthcare providers in reimbursement controversies involving government payors such as Medicare and Medicaid.

His practice focuses primarily on Medicare reimbursement litigation before the Provider Reimbursement Review Board and strategic reimbursement counseling. Alek has represented hospitals, academic medical centers and other providers in Medicare reimbursement matters involving graduate medical education, nursing and allied health education, and disproportionate share hospital payments. He has also advised clients on enrollment and compliance issues related to the 340B Drug Pricing Program and on False Claims Act investigations and litigation.

Credentials

EDUCATION

J.D., Georgetown University

ADMISSIONS

Virginia

Insights

NEWSLETTER

December 27, 2021

Health Headlines– December 27, 2021

December 20, 2021

Health Headlines – December 20, 2021

December 13, 2021

Health Headlines – December 13, 2021

VIEW ALL ON KSLAW.COM

Events

WEBINAR

October 13, 2020

What You Need to Know About CMS's Latest Rulemakings Affecting Hospital Medicare Reimbursement, Including IPPS, OPSS and the Part C Proposed Rule