

Blythe Golay Kochsiek

Senior Associate
Special Matters and Government Investigations / Government Matters

Los Angeles: +1 213 443 4350
bkochsiek@kslaw.com

Blythe G. Kochsiek represents clients in investigations and litigation, including government criminal and civil investigations, corporate internal investigations, white-collar criminal defense, and complex civil litigation.

Blythe is a senior associate in King & Spalding's Special Matters and Investigations practice and a member of the firm's Associates Committee.

Blythe's experience includes defending companies and individuals in investigations by the Department of Justice, Congress, the Securities and Exchange Commission, state attorneys general, and other federal, state, and foreign authorities, and conducting domestic and international internal investigations across a range of industries, including technology, pharmaceuticals, and energy/natural resources. Blythe also has extensive experience representing clients in complex commercial litigation in state and federal courts.

Blythe received her J.D. degree from Loyola Law School. During law school, she was a judicial extern for the Honorable R. Gary Klausner, United States District Court, Central District of California and Chief Technical Editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review. Blythe graduated magna cum laude and received her B.A. degree from Cornell University.

Since 2015, Blythe has served as a member of Loyola Law School's Board of Governors (President, 2018-2019). Blythe is also a member of Marlborough High School's Young Alumnae Council (President, 2018-2020).

Matters

Advising publicly-traded pharmaceutical company concerning Department of Justice and state attorneys general investigations into the company's past promotion of opioids.

Counseling companies in the FinTech industry with respect to global regulatory compliance issues and OFAC subpoena responses.

Representing a Fortune 500 multinational company on FCPA compliance issues involving overseas projects.

Advised major multinational technology company on cross-border corporate governance issues relating to concurrent criminal and civil tax proceedings in France.

Conducted time-sensitive due diligence in the U.S. and abroad for a publicly-traded FinTech company in connection with its acquisition by a private equity firm in a $3.5 billion deal.

Provided strategic advice to medical technology company on general corporate and investigation matters.

Represented client in responding to administrative investigation by the Federal Maritime Commission.

Credentials

EDUCATION

J.D., Loyola Law School

B.A., Cornell University, magna cum laude

ADMISSIONS

Central District of California

California

CLERKSHIPS

Intern, Hon. R. Gary Klausner, Central District of California

ASSOCIATIONS

Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles (WLALA)

Firmwide Associates Committee

Recognition

Southern California Rising Star

2019 - 2021, SUPER LAWYERS

Insights

ARTICLE

November 5, 2021 • Source: Thomson Reuters Practical Law

King & Spalding: transatlantic business crime and investigations November 2021 column

June 1, 2020 • Source: Wall Street Lawyer

The Shot Across the Bow and the Limited Course Correction After United States v. Connolly

December 12, 2019 • Source: Practical Law Company/Thomson Reuters

King & Spalding: transatlantic business crime and investigations December column

VIEW ALL ON KSLAW.COM

News

IN THE NEWS

September 27, 2019 • Source: Daily Journal

Daily Journal profiles the growth of the Los Angeles office and its recent photography contest of photos taken by members of the office that will serve as artwork in the new space

May 6, 2019 • Source: Law360

Matthew Blaschke, Kathleen McCarthy, Lisa Dwyer, Anne Voigts, David Farber, Isra Bhatti, Cassie Rasmussen, and Blythe Kochsiek successfully settled a Lanham Act and unfair trade practices case on behalf of Amarin Pharma