

Christina Kung

Associate

Washington, D.C.: +1 202 626 9125
ckung@kslaw.com

Christina Kung is an associate in the Special Matters and Government Investigations practice. She focuses her practice on government investigations, white-collar criminal defense, and related civil litigation. Christina has experience defending individuals and corporations in matters related to various topics, including the False Claims Act, Foreign Agents Registration Act, the Anti-Kickback Statute, whistleblower litigation, and fraud investigations.

Christina graduated from The George Washington University Law School, where she was a member of The George Washington Law Review. She earned her B.A. in International Development Studies and Sociology from the University of California, Los Angeles.

Credentials

ADMISSIONS

California
District of Columbia

Insights

ARTICLE

August 12, 2021 • Source: Chamber Litigation Blog
Top False Claims Act Developments

February 12, 2021

King & Spalding Discusses SEC's Potential Focus During Biden Administration

CLIENT ALERT

April 1, 2021

SEC Division of Examinations – 2021 Priorities

VIEW ALL ON KSLAW.COM