

Christopher Charles Jew

Associate
Healthcare

---

Los Angeles: +1 213 443 4336
cjew@kslaw.com

Christopher Jew is an Associate in King & Spalding's Los Angeles Healthcare practice group. He represents healthcare providers in complex litigation matters involving managed care disputes and class action defense matters in state and federal courts. Prior to joining King & Spalding, Christopher served as a judge advocate in the United States Marine Corps.

Christopher has trial, motion practice, alternative dispute resolution and general case management, including first and second chair experience as a prosecutor for felonies and misdemeanors.

Prior to joining King & Spalding, Christopher represented clients in complex business litigation matters. As a judge advocate in the United States Marine Corps, he was a prosecutor, advised deploying units on law of war matters, and conducted internal investigations.

Christopher received his undergraduate degree from the University of California, Davis, magna cum laude. He received his J.D. from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law and his MBA from UCLA Anderson School of Management.

Credentials

EDUCATION

M.B.A., UCLA Anderson School of Management
J.D., University of Southern California
B.S., University of California, Davis, magna cum laude

ADMISSIONS

Central District of California
California

Insights

NEWSLETTER

November 8, 2021

Health Headlines – November 8, 2021

October 11, 2021

Health Headlines – October 11, 2021

August 30, 2021

Health Headlines – August 30, 2021

VIEW ALL ON KSLAW.COM