Damien Marshall is a partner in the Trial and Global Disputes Practice Group. He focuses on the resolution of complex business disputes over a broad range of substantive areas, including antitrust, securities, consumer protection and general commercial disputes. Damien has extensive experience representing clients on a broad range of litigation and regulatory matters with particular emphasis on defending financial institutions and technology companies in class action and MDL proceedings.

Damien regularly practices before federal and state courts throughout the nation. His clients include large global financial institutions, as well as technology companies, Fintech companies, hedge funds and private equity funds.

Regardless of the client or forum, Damien focuses on achieving his client's legal and business goals in an efficient and effective manner. Damien is recognized by The Legal500 for his general litigation practice. In addition to his dispute resolution practice, Damien provides risk analysis and advice to clients regarding potential exposures and risk mitigation strategies.
