

Florence Mugerwa

Associate

Trial and Global Disputes / International Arbitration and Litigation

London: +44 20 7551 2129

fmugerwa@kslaw.com

Florence Mugerwa is an Associate in King & Spalding's Trial and Global Disputes practice in the London office. Florence qualified in 2020, having trained with the firm.

Florence has a broad commercial practice. She has been involved in a various multi-party cases in different jurisdictions, including issues of breach of contract, professional negligence and construction disputes in industries such as financial services, infrastructure, engineering and oil and gas.

During her training contract, Florence spent 6 months on secondment working with the firm's Dubai office.

Florence has a particular interest in Africa and MENA work. She was raised in several countries across Africa and Europe, receiving her law degree from Grey College, Durham University (with a year abroad undertaken at Rijksuniversiteit Groningen in The Netherlands) and her master's degree in law from St Catharine's College, Cambridge University.

Credentials

EDUCATION

LL.M., University of Cambridge, UK
Legal Practice Certificate, BPP Law School
LL.B., Durham University

ADMISSIONS

England and Wales

Insights

ARTICLE

October 1, 2020 • Source: Thomson Reuters: Practical Law Dispute Resolution Blog
It's Not Me, It's You: Terminating English Law Contracts

Events

WEBINAR

October 22, 2020

Africa Webinar Series: COVID-19: Opportunity in Crisis Part Two

News

CASES & DEALS

May 25, 2021

King & Spalding Represents an Armenian Client in a US$320 Million Mining Dispute against Russian VTB Group

IN THE NEWS

October 28, 2020 • Source: Law.com International

Naana Frimpong and Florence Mugerwa talk about their different paths into law, discuss the importance of diverse representation in the industry, and offer advice for young lawyers during U.K. Black History Month

RECOGNITION

January 20, 2021

King & Spalding Advises on Two of Islamic Finance News' 2020 Deals of the Year

VIEW ALL ON KSLAW.COM