Matt Brigman is business lawyer with experience litigating complex commercial disputes in state and federal courts across the country. Matt has extensive experience in data privacy and security matters, having guided clients through the incident response process to defending ensuing class action litigation.

In addition to his data privacy and security work, Matt regularly represents businesses in litigation involving allegations of securities fraud, civil RICO, and professional liability, as well as disputes between business owners, vendors, contractors, and employees. Matt also has experience defending consumer class actions for companies in several different industries, including insurers, banks, and retailers.

Before joining the firm, Matt was an associate with a boutique commercial litigation firm in Atlanta, Georgia. Matt also served as a law clerk to the Honorable Harold L. Murphy of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia.

Matt earned his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from the University of Georgia School of Law. During law school, he was inducted into the Order of the Coif and served as an Articles Editor of the Georgia Journal of International and Comparative Law.

Matt is the Chair of the Atlanta Chapter of the Federal Bar Association's Younger Lawyers Division, serves as a student mentor for the University of Georgia School of Law, and is an active volunteer for Trees Atlanta.
