Lauren Slive Gennett is a senior associate in King & Spalding’s Atlanta office and is a member of the firm’s Healthcare practice. Lauren’s practice focuses on the representation of healthcare clients in litigation, internal investigations, government investigations and regulatory matters. Lauren advises healthcare providers on how to prepare for and respond to audits conducted by government contractors, including recovery audit contractors (RACs), Medicare administrative contractors (MACs) and zone program integrity contractors (ZPICs). She also assists with the development of Medicare and Medicaid appeal strategies for providers. In addition, Lauren advises clients regarding various regulatory compliance matters, including patient status determination issues and implementation of Corporate Integrity Agreements (CIAs).

Lauren earned her J.D., with honors, from the Emory University School of Law. During law school, she was awarded the James Colson Scholarship and served as a Notes and Comments Editor for the Emory Law Journal. Lauren earned her M.P.H., with a focus in health policy, from the Emory University Rollins School of Public Health. Lauren received her undergraduate degree in Public Policy, with highest honors, from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where she was elected to the Order of the Golden Fleece Honorary Society. Lauren is Certified in Healthcare Compliance (CHC).
