

Peter Brabant

Counsel

Trial and Global Disputes

---

Singapore: +65 6303 6013
pbrabant@kslaw.com

Peter Brabant is a leading investigations and disputes lawyer with expertise acting for multinational clients across Asia. He advises clients on a broad range of contentious matters across the oil and gas, projects and infrastructure, and construction sectors. He has particular experience in acting for Fortune 500 companies on investigations relating to matters as diverse as anti-bribery/corruption, cybersecurity, anti-trust, tax and fraud.

Peter also advises clients on complex commercial disputes and international arbitrations. He has acted on some of the most contentious and complex investigations and disputes in Australia and Asia and has a detailed knowledge of the region's regulatory environment and clients' commercial operations and business drivers.

Peter has over 14 years' experience practising in Australia and Singapore, including a recent secondment at an oil and gas major in Singapore where he managed disputes and investigations across Asia, Middle East, Europe and Africa.

Matters

Acting for a Fortune 500 company on an anti-bribery/corruption investigation arising from engineering projects across multiple jurisdictions in South East Asia. This included self-reporting to numerous national, regional and global regulatory authorities and negotiating a successful resolution.

Acting for an oil and gas major on a tax-related criminal investigation targeting senior officers and relating to its most significant projects.

Acting for one of the world's largest technology companies on a high profile cybersecurity incident with global and political ramifications.

Acting for a Fortune 500 company on coordinated anti-trust investigations across Asia and the Middle East.

Acting for a Fortune 500 company on numerous investigations across Asia relating to matters as diverse as anti-bribery/corruption, cybersecurity, anti-trust, environmental and fraud.

Acting for companies and high profile individuals that have been the subject of various high profile, government-initiated commissions of inquiry, including corruption inquiries and Royal Commissions.

Acting for a multinational corporation in an international arbitration on a multi-billion dollar construction dispute.

Acting in a host of arbitrations across Australia, Asia and the UK to resolve commercial disputes for clients across the energy and resources, projects and infrastructure, and construction sectors.

Acting for the parent company in one of the most significant financial collapses in history by managing the book of contentious and litigious bankruptcy matters across Australia and Asia.

Acting for a private individual to protect her shareholding in multi-tiered, complex bankruptcy proceedings, one of the largest claims ever heard before that State's Court.

Credentials

EDUCATION

B. Com, University of New South Wales

LL.B., University of New South Wales

ADMISSIONS

High Court of Australia

Supreme Court of New South Wales

News

RECOGNITION

July 10, 2020

King & Spalding Earns Top Spot on Global Arbitration Review's GAR 30 Ranking