Sarah Borders is a nationally recognized restructuring and finance lawyer. Her practice focuses on developing, structuring, documenting and closing financing transactions; representing borrowers and lenders in debt restructurings, workouts and forbearance arrangements; and representing debtors, lenders purchasers and unsecured creditors in chapter 11 reorganization cases. Sarah's practice spans a number of industries including infrastructure, real estate, energy, agriculture, healthcare, manufacturing, retail, restaurant, hospitality and transportation.

Sarah has successfully represented a number of debtors in chapter 11 cases, including The Krystal Company, Ignite Restaurant Group, FXCM, Inc., Propex, Inc., Sea Island Company, AIG Baker, Jack Cooper Enterprises, The New Power Company, Winn Dixie Stores, Rhodes Furniture, Inc., Dan River, Inc., Centennial Healthcare Corporation, World Health Alternatives, Inc., LJM2 Investments, Titan Financial Group, Black Diamond Mining, and International Total Systems.

Sarah is a native of Louisiana, graduated from Louisiana State University and the University of Virginia School of Law, where she serves on the Board of Trustees for the Law School Foundation. She is a former law clerk for the late Judge Henry A. Politz of the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

A Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy, Sarah has been recognized as a leading restructuring lawyer by Chambers USA (Star Individual), Best Lawyers in America, Who's Who in Restructuring and Insolvency and The Deal.

Sarah has served multiple terms on the Firm's policy committee and had led both the Financial Restructuring and Real Estate practice groups.
